DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Thank you so much for making 2015 a successful year. The support you give to the Rogue Gallery, whether through your financial donations, by volunteering your time, or sharing your artwork, is what makes the art center a vital artistic resource for the community.

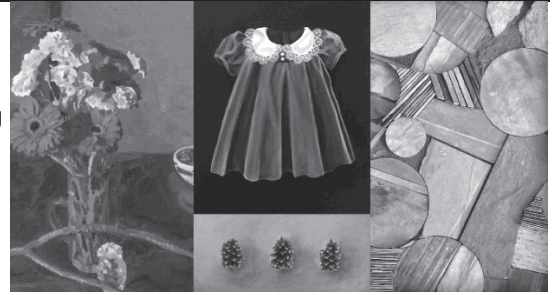

The 2015 Exhibition Series included a retrospective of Elaine Whitteveen, the Rogue Valley Biennial, and Judy Morris: Beyond Main Street. These Main Gallery exhibits, together with the exhibits presented in all four galleries, celebrated the rich and diverse creativity of the visual arts in Southern Oregon. In addition to the exhibits, over 500 individuals participated in Rogue Gallery art education last year.

In the coming year, the Rogue Gallery is presenting 23 exhibits in our Main Gallery, Community Gallery, and the Berryman Gallery. This summer, we are especially pleased to feature "Blending Poetry and Cloth: Studio Art Quilt Associates", in which Oregon fiber artists interweave poetic verse with visual arts. In July, Rogue Gallery marks the 70th anniversary of Abstract Expressionism. Join us as we celebrate this uniquely American movement with a members' exhibit, special classes, and special documentary screenings. In the fall, we present "Inviting Joy", an exhibit that features the work of board member and former Rogue Gallery director, Nancy Jo Mullen and her sister Susan Zimmerman. As always, our education program will offer special classes and lectures associated with our various exhibits in addition to our regular education schedule.

Thank you again for a great year. We look forward to another exciting year at the Rogue Gallery & Art Center.

Warmest wishes,
